PAKISTAN

Minister of Science and Technology

Ministry for Science and Technology

Tehmina DAULTANA

She is an Educationist by profession. Previously in 1996-1999, she was Minister of State for Women Development, Social Welfare and Special Education. She remained MNA from Vehari District in 1993-1996.

Her family actively participated in Pakistan movement. Her uncle Mumtaz Daultana is famous politician and remained Chief Minister of the Punjab and served as Minister for Defence. Her father, Muhammad Riaz Daultana elected three times MNA. Her area of interest includes business, education, agriculture and women rights. She did Masters in History from the Punjab University and attended NDC in 2004-2005 as well course of Political Science from State Department of America. She actively participated in movement for restoration of democracy in Pakistan and rights of women