

SLOWENIEN

Kulturministerin Prof. Andreja RICHTER

Ministrstvo za Kulturo
Cankdarjeva 5
SLO-1000 Ljubljana
Tel: 386.61 4785900
Fax: 386.61 478 59 01

Was born in 1957 in Celje.

Education

After matriculating from Celje Grammar School, she studied at the Faculty of Philosophy in Ljubljana

1981 she graduated in history and sociology

Career

Since 1981 she has been regularly employed at the Museum of Recent History Celje,
Since 1986 director

She has worked actively in numerous professional associations, including as president of the Museums Association of Slovenia and national correspondent of the European Museum Forum.

As editor and author, in co-publication among the Museum of Recent History Celje, Mohoreva družba and Celje Urban Municipality

1992 she received the bronze shield of the City of Celje for her successful leadership of the Celje Museum of Recent History.

1993 has cooperated in the books Biser na Savinja (Pearl on the Savinja)

1999 Monograph of Celje She is the founder of »Herman's Den«, the only museum for children in Slovenia, as a unit of the Museum of Recent History.

March 2000 Co-author of the exhibition »To Live in Celje«, which was opened 1996 an important cultural monument in Celje, the studio of glass photography of Josip Pelikan (unique in Slovenia) was rescued under her leadership, and at the start of the nineties, a dentistry collection, similarly of unique national importance. Her professional work has also been connected with active participation at international museum conferences and meetings, and she has also been organiser of international professional meetings in Slovenia.

1999 The most recent was in Ljubljana, when the Museums Association of Slovenia hosted award of the European Museum of the Year Award. She has received numerous awards and recognitions.

1999 the Museum of Recent History was awarded the silver shield of the City of Celje.