

MAZEDONIEN

Minister of Culture

Ministry of Culture

Arifhikmet Xhemali

Born on 11th November 1953 in the village of Bogovinje near Tetovo

- 1981 He graduated from the Academy of Music in Pristina
- Since 1994 He is a founder of the girl quire at the “Kiril Pejcinovic” high school, and he has been managing the mixed quire at the State University in Tetovo.
- 1998 He graduated from the Tetovo University, group of fine arts
- 2001 He earned M.A. degree in quire singing from the New Bulgarian University in Sofia.

He has worked as a teacher of music at the “Abdulj Fraseri” primary school in the village of Bogovinje and at the “Kiril Pejcinovic” high school in Tetovo.

- 2002 He earned a M.A. degree from the University in Pristina.
- 2004 He was elected a docent of quire singing at the State University in Tetovo, Faculty of humane sciences and arts, group of music.
- 2004 to 2006 He was performing the duty of a head of the music art study program.
- 2006 He was elected Pro-rector at the State University in Tetovo.
- 12th April 2007 He was elected the Minister of Culture in the Government of the Republic of Macedonia on.