

ISRAEL

Minister of Education

Ministry of Education

Yael (Yuli) Tamir

Born 1954, in Israel
Divorced, 2 children

Career Data:

She is a Professor of Political Philosophy at Tel-Aviv University and a Research Fellow at the Hartman Institute of Jewish Studies. She served as a member of the board of directors of the Jerusalem Foundation and the Israel Institute of Democracy. Prof. Tamir has authored several books as well as articles liberalism, nationalism, feminism, and the theory of rights

1978 She received a B.A. cum laude in Biology from the Hebrew University. She was one of the founders of the Peace Now movement

1985 M.A. in Political Science

1989 Ph. D in Political Philosophy from Oxford University in England

She served in the IDF, completing her service with the rank of Lieutenant. She was a member of the Women's Lobby.

1998 – 1999 She served as Chairperson of the Civil Rights Organization

1995 – 1999 she served as Chairperson of the Civil Rights Organization and was active in the Israel Labor Party

August 1999 – March 2001 2003	Minister of Immigrant Absorption She elected to the Knesset, and served as a Member of the Knesset Finance, Constitution, Law and Justice, and Education, Culture and Sports Committees, as well as on the Parliamentary Inquiry Committee for Uncovering Corruption in the Government System of Israel.
May 2006	Minister of Education
November 2006	Minister of Education, Science, Culture and Sports