

BELARUS

Minister of Education

Ministry of Education

Alexandr Mikhailovich RADKOV

Born on 1 July 1951 in the village of Votnia, Bykhov District, Mogilev Oblast
Married, with two adult daughters.

1973	he graduated from Mogilev State Pedagogical Institute, majoring in mathematics and physics.
1982	he completed a post-graduate course at Minsk State Pedagogical Institute named after A.M. Gorky.
1982	he defended his Ph.D thesis (Candidate of Science)
1996	a doctoral thesis (Doctor of Science) Doctor of Pedagogical Sciences Professor in mathematics
1974 – 1990	instructor, senior lecturer, associate professor, head of the algebra and geometry chair, Mogilev State Pedagogical Institute named after A.A. Kuleshov;
1990 – 1994	Prorector for Academic Affairs, Mogilev State Pedagogical Institute named after A.A.Kuleshov;
1994 – 1997	First Prorector, Mogilev State Pedagogical Institute named after A.A.Kuleshov;
1997 – 2001	First Prorector, Mogilev State Pedagogical University named after A.A.Kuleshov;
2001 – 2003	Rector of Mogilev State University named after A.A. Kuleshov;
2003 – present	Minister of Education of the Republic of Belarus.

- Distinguished Scientist of the Republic of Belarus.
- Awarded a medal “For Labor Distinction”.