

SERBIEN

Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Science and Technological Development

Ministry for Science and Technological Development

Bozidar DJELIC

Born 1965 in Belgrade
married, 2 children

- 1987                      Graduated from HEC business studies and the Institut d'Etudes Politiques, Paris, France
- 1991                      He received an MBA (Master of Business Administration) from Harvard Business School, Boston, MA, USA
- 1991-1992                He worked as a privatisation and banking advisor to the Russian, Romanian and Polish governments in
- 1993 - 2000             he was a partner with McKinsey&Company in Paris and California.
- 2001 - 2004             He was Minister of Finance and Economy in the Government of the Republic of Serbia
- 2005 - 2007            He established a strong and sustainable administration in one of the fastest and most successful public finance reforms in the countries in transition and was director for Central Europe at Credit Agricole SA Group
- May 2007 - July 2008                      He was Serbian Deputy Prime Minister, in charge of European integration.
- 29 April 2008            On behalf of Serbia he signed the Stabilisation and Association Agreement in Luxembourg.

Recognising his achievements in business and politics, the World Economic Forum (Davos) nominated him as Young Global Leader for the period 2005-2010.

Speaks French, English, Russian, Polish and German.