

BOSNIEN HERZEGOWINA REPUBLIC SRPSKA

Minister of Science and Technology

Ministry of Science and Technology

Bakir AJANOVIĆ

Born 1953 in Banja Luka, Bosniac by nationality
Married, two children

Career Data:

He finished his primary and secondary education in Banja Luka, and graduated from the Faculty of Medicine in Sarajevo. He specialized in general surgery in Zagreb. He was surgeon in Medical Centre in Banja Luka

1994 - 2002

he worked in Medical Centre Garland, USA.

Before his appointment as Minister of Science and Technology, he worked as surgeon in Health Centre "Deamedika" in Banja Luka.

Main activities of Ministry:

The main activities of the Ministry of Science and Technology are administrative and other expert tasks related to:

- science-research activities;
- strategy of demography development of the Republic and measures of the population policy;
- strategy of the technological development of the Republic;
- incentive to fundamental development applied researches;
- development of national investment technologies,
- skilled personnel in science-research operations;
- innovations, development and improvement of technology;
- informing on issues of economics and technology development;
- cede and acquiring of material rights and technologies in production; planning,

- preparation of programs and agreements on science-technical cooperation in accordance with the Constitution of Bosnia and Herzegovina,
- inspection supervision in these fields, provision of information via media and other types of informing on its work and perform other tasks in accordance with the Law and other regulations of the Republic of Srpska and Bosnia and Herzegovina.