

BOSNIEN HERZEGOWINA REPUBLIC SRPSKA

Minister of Education and Culture

Ministry for Education and Culture

Dane MALESEVIC

Born in 1952 in Civcije, the municipality of Prnjavor

- After finishing the university studies and becoming a secondary school teacher of polytechnics, he obtained the doctor's title related to the quality of secondary vocational education and training.
- He worked as a teacher and Director of the Technical School in Gradiska, as advisor in the Ministry of Education and Culture of the Republic of Srpska and as the Chief of Department for Civil Affairs in the municipality of Gradiska.
- As a prominent expert he participated in the preparation of the nomenclature of occupations for secondary vocational education and institutional development of vocational education and preparation of school curriculum for elementary and secondary schools in the Republic of Srpska.
- He was engaged in preparation of numerous projects which refer to the strategy of secondary vocational education and its reform.