

BOSNIEN und HERZEGOWINA - Federation

Minister of Education and Science

Ministry for Education and Science

Elvira DILBEROVIĆ

Born on 24th October 1973 in Mostar

She completed the Grammar High School in Mostar.

2002 Graduated from the Faculty of Humanistic Science, Department for Bosnian Language and Literature of the University „Džemal Bijedić“ in Mostar.

2007 Postgraduate studies completed at the Faculty of Philosophy in Sarajevo, Linguistics Study Course.

She defended her doctoral thesis entitled “Language and Style-Specific Particularities of Political Discourse” (using examples from printed media in Bosnia and Herzegovina 1992-1995).

2002-2004 She worked as a professor of Bosnian language and literature at the Grammar High School in Mostar. She is Professor at the University „Džemal Bijedić“ in Mostar, and External Associate at the University in Zenica.

She is a Certified Bosnian Language Teacher for Diplomatic Level.

Member of the Managing Board of the Council of the Bosniak Intellectuals (VKBI) in Mostar

In her capacity of the author and lector she participated in many publishing projects in the field of religion, culture, history and sociology. She reviewed a number of textbooks and scientific publications and promoted many scientific and literary works.

She actively speaks Swedish and English languages.