

MONTENEGRO

Minister of Culture

Ministry for Culture

Pavle GORANOVIC

Born in 1973 in Niksic

18 March 2015

Minister of Culture in the Government of Montenegro.

- He graduated at the Faculty of Philosophy, department for philosophy.
- He is a writer, a member of prestigious national and international literary organizations. He is into poetry, prose, writing essays.
- He has published the books: Ornamentika noći, Čitanje tišine, Knjiga prvida, Kako mirišu knjige, Tin Ujević i Crna Gora, Cinober, Grad punog mjeseca

He has been awarded with numerous recognitions and awards for his literary works.

The most important awards are:

- “Risto Ratković” for the best book of poetry published in Montenegro, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Serbia and Croatia – for the year 2009;

- “Vito Nikolić” for the best Montenegrin lyricist in 2010/2011;
  - the State Award “Miroslavljevo Jevandjelje” in 2014 for the best literary, historiography, ethnography and publicist work published in Montenegro in the previous three years.
-
- He has been an editor and artistic director of cultural manifestations and festivals.
  - His books and literary works have been translated to various languages (English, Italian, French, Russian, Slovenian, Slovakian, Macedonian, Polish, Bulgarian, Swedish, Albanian, Hebrew).
  - He is represented in numerous anthologies of Montenegrin and EX Yugoslav poetry and short stories, as well as in the Anthology of New European Poets (United States), Anthology of poetry of Slavic countries etc.
  - He was a member of the Council of the Movement for Independent Montenegro.
  - Member of National Council for Culture.
  - Member of the Council for qualifications.
  - Member of Program Council of the Forum of Slavic Cultures.
  - From 2003 to 2010 Advisor of the Prime Minister of Montenegro.
  - Since 2010- director of Bureau for Education Service.