

UKRAINE

Minister of Education and Science

Ministry for Education and Science

Serhiy KVIT

Professor of Mohyla School of Journalism, Doctor of Science (Philology), Doctor of Philosophy (PhD).

Born on 26 November 1965 in Uzhgorod

27 Feb 2014 Minister of Education and Science

Education:

	Master of sports in fencing.
1982	Graduated from secondary school № 17 in Lviv.
1983-1985	He served in 29th separate sports squadron (Carpathian Military District).
1991	After military service, he graduated from the Faculty of Journalism of the Kyiv State Shevchenko University. From his student years he has been going in for journalistic activity.
2000	He became Doctor of Science (Philology)
2001	He became Doctor of Philosophy.
1996	He began his teaching career at the Institute of Journalism, where he worked until 2001.
2000-2001	He was the Head of Press and Publishing Department of the State Committee for Information Policy, Television and Radio of Ukraine.

Work:

1991	He started to work as a journalist in the magazine «Word and Time», Institute of Literature of the National Academy of Science of Ukraine.
1992	He worked at the National University of «Kyiv-Mohyla Academy» as the chief editor of «Yes» journal.
From 1993 to 2003	He headed the journal «Ukrainian problem».
2001	He founded Mohyla School of Journalism, and was its director till 2007.

2002-2007 He worked as Dean of the Faculty of Social Sciences and Social Technologies (National University of «Kyiv-Mohyla Academy»).

2007 He was elected to be a President of National University of «Kyiv-Mohyla Academy».

Research interests are: philosophical hermeneutics, mass communication, university management.

1990 He was a founding member of the Association «New Literature».

2002-2010 He was President of the Center for Media Reform

Since 2005 He has been a Member of the Committee on Freedom of Speech and Information Sector.

He was awarded by prizes of magazines:

1994 «Svitovyd»,

1996 «Blagovist»

2004 The Ukrainian Free University Foundation

He was a scholar of following institutions:

2006-2007 Foundation of Fulbright

2009 The Kennan Institute

2010 The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD)