

UKRAINE

Minister of Education and Science

Ministry for Education and Science

Lilia HRYNEVYCH

Born on 13 May 1965, in Lviv in a family of teachers

She is married with a daughter, a son and two granddaughters.

She has two higher education qualifications: teacher-biochemist (Ivan Franko National University of Lviv, 1989), economist and manager (Interdisciplinary Institute for Continuing Education and Retraining at LPI, 1993).

Previously, she held various positions: a teacher, deputy headmaster, school principal, teacher at universities, Director of the Ukrainian Center for Educational Quality Assessment, Head of Kyiv City State Administration's education department of. She trained at the Warsaw and Columbia universities.

She was among those who created a system of external independent testing in Ukraine (EIT) and was the first director of the Ukrainian Center for Educational Quality Assessment in 2006.

2006-2009

She headed Kyiv City State Administration's education department.

- 2012-2016 She was elected to the Parliament of Ukraine of the VII and VIII of convocations.
- 2012-2016 She chaired the Parliamentary Committee for Science and Education. Under her leadership it has been developed and adopted by the Parliament laws of Ukraine "On Higher Education", "On Scientific and Scientific-Technical Activities", developed and prepared for consideration by the Verkhovna Rada a draft law "On education" and other laws in the field of education and science.
- 14 April 2016 She was appointed as Minister of Education and Science of Ukraine.
- Candidate of Pedagogical Sciences. The topic of her dissertation: "Trends of education decentralization in contemporary Poland (2005)."