

UNITED KINGDOM

Secretary of State for Education

Ministry for Education, Women and Equalities

Minister for Women and Equalities

Nicky MORGAN

She lives in Loughborough with husband Jonathan and they have one son.

Biography:

15 July 2014

she was appointed Education Secretary and Minister for Women and Equalities.

She is the Member of Parliament for Loughborough.

Education:

She attended Surbiton High School, before going on to read law at St Hugh's College, Oxford.

Political career:

- She was elected for the Loughborough seat for the Conservatives in the 2010 General Election.
- Nicky has served as Parliamentary Private Secretary to the Rt Hon David Willetts MP, Cabinet Minister at the Department of Business, Innovation and Skills, and before that was a member of the BIS Select Committee.
- She served as an Assistant Whip in the coalition government, until her appointment as Economic Secretary to the Treasury on 7 October 2013.

9 April 2014

she was appointed as Financial Secretary to the Treasury and Minister for Women.

Career outside politics:

1996

She qualified as a solicitor, specialising in corporate law

1996-2010

She advised a range of private and public companies