

LITAUEN

Minister of Education, Science and Sport

Ministry for Education, Science and Sport

Algirdas MONKEVIČIUS

- 1979 Graduated from Šiauliai Pedagogical Institute.
He started a professional career as Mathematics and Physics Teacher at Šiauliai Pedagogical Institute.
- 1991 He obtained Ph.D. in Social Sciences from Moscow Social Sciences Academy.
- Until 2000 He held a position of Dean and Rector's Advisor at Šiauliai University.
- Since 2009 He was an Associate Professor in the Department of Social Policy at Mykolas Romeris University, and the Dean of Faculty of Politics and Management.
- 2014-2019 He served as Rector of Mykolas Romeris University.
- 01/2019 He was appointed as Minister of Education and Science of the Republic of Lithuania for the 4th time.

He has a broad and diverse experience in the implementation of educational and research reforms and played a key role in the drafting and adoption of new Law on Higher Education and Research of the Republic of Lithuania

- 2000-2004 Served as Minister of Education and Science of the Republic of Lithuania from 2000 to 2004 and in 2008 he has brought an enormous wealth of experience to that position.
- 2004-2008 He was a Member of Parliament of the Republic of Lithuania.

He research interests are Education Policy, and Quality of Life economy. He is a member of World Economics Association, EU Quality of Life research Association, International Sociology Association, an expert and participant of Lifelong Learning Programme research activities.