

INDONESIEN

Minister of Education, Culture, Research, and Technology

Ministry for Education, Culture, Research, and Technology

Nadiem Anwar MAKARIM

Born on 4 July 1984

Nadiem Anwar Makarim, B.A., M.B.A. is the current minister of education and culture of the Republic of Indonesia. He founded Gojek in 2010, a transportation network company and logistic startup company that became Indonesia's first startup valued over US$10 billion. He was appointed as Minister of Education and Culture by President Joko Widodo on his second term's cabinet and subsequently resigned from his post at Gojek.

Experience:

2010-2019	Chief Executive Officer at Gojek
2013-2014	Chief Innovation Officer at Kartuku
2011-2012	Co-Founder and Managing Director at Zalora
2006-2009	Consultant at Mc Kinsey & Company

Education and Degrees

- Master of Business Administration, Harvard Business School, United States of America
- Bachelor of Arts in International Relation, Brown University, United States of America