

JAPAN

Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology

Ministry for Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology

Masahito MORIYAMA

Born on December 14, 1953 in Osaka, Japan; Political party: Liberal Democratic Party of Japan (LDP)

Education

Mar. 1977	Graduated Faculty of Law, University of Tokyo
Mar. 2013	Received Doctoral Degree in Law, Completed Doctoral Course, Graduate School of Law, Kobe University
Mar. 2014	Received Doctoral Degree in Commerce, Kobe University

Career

Sep. 2023	Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (Second Kishida Cabinet (Second Reshuffle))
Nov. 2021	Chief Deputy Chairperson, Diet Affairs Committee, LDP Chief Director, Committee on Rules and Administration, House of Representatives
Oct. 2021	Elected at 49th General Elections (5th term)
Oct. 2020	Deputy Chairperson, Diet Affairs Committee, LDP Director, Committee on Rules and Administration, House of Representatives
Oct. 2019	Chairperson, Committee on Health, Labour and Welfare, House of Representatives
Aug. 2017	Director, Land, Infrastructure, Transport and Tourism Division, LDP
Oct. 2015	State Minister of Justice, State Minister of Cabinet Office (Third Abe Cabinet)
Sep. 2014	Director, Judicial Affairs Division, LDP
Sep. 2005	First elected to 44th House of Representatives (Hyogo 1st District)
Aug. 2005	Director-General, Data and Information Office, Policy Bureau, Ministry of Land, Transport and Infrastructure
Mar. 1981	Transport and Tourism Division, Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), Paris
Apr. 1977	Ministry of Transport