Mihai DIMIAN

Mihai Dimian born 9 February 1975 in Onești, is married, and has one child.

He holds a bachelor's degree in mathematics (1993–1997) and in physics (1997–2001) from "Alexandru Ioan Cuza" University in Iași.

He obtained his PhD in electrical engineering in the United States, at a university in Maryland, and has had research internships in France, the USA, and Germany.

He was a research associate at the Max Planck Institute for Applied Mathematics in Leipzig, in the field of multi-scale modeling and noise-assisted phenomena.

Since 2012, he has been a university professor at "Ștefan cel Mare" University in Suceava, where he is also a doctoral supervisor.

His public CV includes numerous research projects and articles in fields such as electrical engineering and signal modeling, published in international journals and volumes.

Since 2020, Dimian has been the rector of USV, having previously served as pro-rector responsible for research.
